Thank you for your interest in serving Unity Renaissance Spiritual Life Center. This application is your first step in the election process. The Nominating Committee will review each application and construct a slate of candidates. Please read the Bylaws to further understanding of the Center's operations and qualifications for Board of Trustees. Contact the minister or board president with any questions. Qualifications for the Board, process, and duties of office are explained in ARTICLE 6, Sections 1-9, & 11-14. The Board officers are president, vice president, two treasurers, and two secretaries. The Board decides officers' positions each year following the election of new members.
